A YEAR IN REVIEW

NEW LIBRARY CARD INITIATIVE

Library staff issued cardholders new, more secure, 14-digit card numbers per Utah State Library standards.

JULY

OCTOBER

STRATEGIC PLAN

A new three-year strategic plan was developed and approved that focused on user experience, inclusivity, community relationships, and lifelong learning.

NOVEMBER

DECEMBER

COMMUNITY OFRENDA

The Library began a tradition of having an ofrenda to celebrate Día de los Muertos and educate the community about this cultural holiday. The community wrote notes to deceased loved ones and brought in photos to display in the Library's entry.

AMERICA'S STAR LIBRARY AWARD

Library Journal designated the Park City Library as one of America's Star Libraries for 2021. This award was received by only three public libraries in the state of Utah for the year.

TEEN ADVISORY BOARD

Teen involvement proved strong and consistent during weekly meetings. The Teen Group volunteered over 75 hours at the library including an after-hours NASA event.

JANUARY

MARCH

SUSTAINABILITY CENTER

The Library developed an innovative Sustainability Center with a grand opening celebration on Earth Day, when the community learned about sustainability with the Center's amenities and community partners.

APRIL

MAY

QUIET BOOTHS INSTALLED

The Library received funding from ARPA Pandemic Response Grant distributed through the Utah State Library to install four quiet booths to help meet the demand for quiet work spaces. These were utilized consistently throughout the building.

MULTIGENERATIONAL PROGRAMMING

As part of Lifelong Learning, two literary tea parties welcomed patrons of all ages with engaging activities, tea, and light refreshments. This well-attended program will now be an annual event.

KATE MAPP, ADULT SERVICES LIBRARIAN, SPEARHEADED THE SUSTAINABILITY CENTER

THE TEEN GROUP MEETING, WITH BRITTNIE HECHT, YOUTH SERVICES ASSISTANT, IN THE TEEN AREA, WHICH RECEIVED A FURNITURE UPGRADE THANKS TO THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

ADRIANE HERRICK JUAREZ, LIBRARY EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, RECEIVED AN AWARD ON BEHALF OF THE PARK CITY LIBRARY FROM THE STATE FOR "EXEMPLARY SERVICE DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC"

Thank you to everyone who supported the Library in a year that saw the development of a new strategic plan that was presented as an example of excellence at the Utah Library Association Conference. The Library was honored to receive Quality Library Designation, the Library Journal Star Library Award, and the Utah State Library's Exemplary Service During COVID-19 Award. We appreciate the use and support of our new Sustainability Resource Center, intergenerational programs, and expanded resources. Thank you to City Council, the Library Board, and the Friends of the Library who support staff, the Library, and the community!
