COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT POLICY

Introduction

The purpose of the Park City Library Collection Development Policy is to guide librarians and to inform the public about principles upon which selections are made. The policy reflects the library's intent of providing materials to meet the needs of a diverse community.

Inclusion of any materials in the Library's collection does not represent or constitute endorsement by the Library of the opinions, points of view, or ideas presented in the material.

Definitions:

1. Materials may be any information resource regardless of physical format.
2. Selection refers to the decisions to acquire new materials or to retain materials already in the Library's collection. Selection does not refer to guidance in assisting a library user.

1. PURPOSE OF COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT

Park City is a growing community with a solid base of year-round residents in addition to a seasonally fluctuating visitor population. Park City's residents and visitors tend to place high demands on the Library's resources. Our community values broad access to resources that represent global viewpoints and in-depth thinking. The Library provides a variety of materials in various formats in as many subject areas as possible for all ability levels, age groups, and diverse populations. The Library provides additional access through the internet and use of Inter-Library Loan.

2. CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

Librarians evaluate and select materials for the Park City Library. Every effort is made to create balanced and consistent collections that meet patron expectations within existing Library budgets.

Library materials are selected based on the following (not necessarily in order of priority):

- Local demand
- Popular interest
- Comprehensiveness, accuracy, currency, and clarity of information
- Presentation, readability, and format
- Variety of ideas and perspectives
- Cost and availability
- Local or regional interest and initiatives
- Relationship to the existing collection and to other materials on the subject
- Availability of materials in other libraries
- Literary or artistic merit
- Contemporary significance
- Reputation and/or authority of author, artist, publisher, or producer

To assess materials based on the above criteria, staff utilizes:

- Nationally recognized and relevant pre-publication reviews
- Staff expertise
- Bestseller lists
- Recommendations and requests from current cardholders in good standing
- Reliable media reviews
- Local, regional, and national booksellers

3. COLLECTION MAINTENANCE

Removal

Materials will be removed from Library collections based on the following factors:

- Diminished interest or demand
- Duplicate or surplus
- Poor physical condition
- No longer contributing to breadth or depth of collections
- Information has become invalid

Discarded materials are donated to the Friends of the Library or may be recycled.

4. ACCESS

Individuals have the right to choose the materials they access. No individual or group has the right to restrict the freedom of others to read, view, or listen to materials accessible through the library. Materials are not automatically removed from the library due to individual or group objections.

While all Library computers contain filters pursuant to the Electronic Use Policy, library staff does not monitor or limit the use of materials by children in the library nor limit the materials that children check out.

The responsibility for the engagement, reading, listening, and viewing choices of children rests with parents and legal guardians. Adults are encouraged to be involved in their children's use of the Library and to guide their involvement with library resources based on their personal values.

Park City Library and the Library Board of Directors endorse the provisions in the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights, the Freedom to Read Statement, the Freedom to View Statement, the Statement on Labeling: An Interpretation of the Library Bill of Rights, and Free Access to Libraries for Minors. Links to these documents are provided in the appendices.

5. LIABILITY

The Park City Library is not liable for any injury, loss, damage, or expense due to the use of materials and equipment.

6. RECONSIDERATION OF MATERIALS

Library cardholders in good standing with concerns about materials in the Library's collection may file a Reconsideration Form to request that the materials be removed. The Library Director or designee will review the request and respond in a timely manner not to exceed six weeks. If the results of the reconsideration are unsatisfactory, the individual(s) may appeal the decision to the Library Board of Directors, which will review the appeal and issue a decision at its next regularly scheduled meeting. The decision will be mailed no more than two weeks after this meeting.

RECONSIDERATION FORM

Statement of Concern about Library Resources

The Library wishes to thank you for your interest in the Library and its resources. Any cardholder in good standing may submit a Reconsideration Form. The Library takes all concerns expressed by patrons very seriously and attempts to respond as quickly as possible. To ensure that your concern is given careful consideration, the review process may take as long as six weeks.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF LIBRARY RECORDS

Purpose: The Park City Library is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of patron records. This policy is based on the U.S. Constitution, the Government Records Access and Management Act (GRAMA) and the American Library Association (ALA) interpretation of the library Bill of Rights. Staff members and volunteers shall make every effort to protect information about library borrowers, their requests for information and materials, the online sites and resources they access, and their loan transactions. This policy cannot guarantee an absolute right to privacy.

1. REFERENCES

U.S. Constitution: The courts have interpreted the Bill of Rights of the U.S. Constitution to include the right to privacy.

Government Records Access Management Act (GRAMA): Section 63-2-302(1)(c) defines Private Records to include “records of publicly funded libraries that when examined alone or with other records identify a patron.” Utah Code Annotated: Section 63-2-202 states when access is allowed to private, controlled, and protected documents.

Types of records considered private include but are not limited to:

- Registration Records - Library card application information
- Circulation Records - Check out information – Any circulation history retained in the computer in a patron’s records
- Lost Library Materials and Refund Receipts - Overdue notices
- Daily Sign-In Sheets (i.e., storytimes, programs, computer use)
- Interlibrary Loan Records

Professional Ethics: The ALA interpretation of the Library Bill of Rights states, “Protecting user privacy and confidentiality has long been an integral part of the mission of the libraries.”

2. REGULATIONS

2.1 No library employee or volunteer shall utilize records classified private for any purposes except those directly related to the discharge of his/her duty.

2.2 Patron records classified private are disclosed only to the patron with proper identification, parent and/or legal guardian of patron under the age of 18, legal guardian of a legally incapacitated individual, patron representative with power of attorney, or other individual who submits a notarized release from the subject of the record or his legal representative dated no more than 90 days before the date the request is made.

2.3 Confidentiality extends but is not limited to reference interviews, interlibrary loan records and computer use records. Confidentiality is also maintained for databases and search records which the library manages.

2.4 The lawful custodian of library records is the Director of the Park City Library.

3. EXCEPTIONS

Circumstances which may require the library to release Private Records include the following:

3.1 A Court Order signed by a judge from a court of competent jurisdiction, as provided in U.C.A 63-2-202(7), or legislative subpoena as provided in U.C.A. Title 36, Chapter 14. Court Orders may include Search Warrants, Subpoenas and Intercept Orders pursuant to FISA.

3.2 For research purposes, as provided in U.C.A. 63-2-202(8).

3.3 A Warrant for Information issued under the USA Patriot Act (Public Law 107-56)

3.4 A National Security Letter seeking information pursuant to the USA Patriot Act (Public Law 107-56)

Under the above circumstances, court order or subpoena, the Library Director will consult with the City Attorney's Office to determine if the request is valid.

Approved by Library Board, October 2006

DAMAGED, MISSING OR LOST MATERIALS DISPOSITION OF PUBLIC PROPERTY

1. PURPOSE

The library preserves and maintains its collection in usable, clean, and attractive condition for public circulation. Library patrons are responsible for the proper care of materials checked out in their name.

Items are inspected for damage during check-in. When library materials are returned and damaged beyond repair the replacement fee plus a five dollar processing fee will be added to the patron's account and the patron will be notified.

When items are returned missing a part (DVD, CD, case, etc.), a replacement fee reflecting the cost of the missing item will be added to the patron's account and the patron notified by mail. Unpaid fees may result in patron's account being blocked.

2. GUIDELINES FOR CHARGES

Library staff determines the extent of damage. In cases in which a patron disagrees with a staff member's assessment of damage charges or replacement costs, the Circulation Team Leader will review the materials and situation in question and make a final determination of charges.

2.1 If the damage is irreparable, beyond further use or circulation, the item will be withdrawn from the collection and discarded. The total replacement cost of the item plus a five dollar processing fee will be added to the patron's library account.

2.2 Missing parts

Charges will be equal to the replacement cost of missing items.

2.3 Lost Materials

When library materials are lost while checked out to a patron, a fee is charged equal to the replacement cost of the item plus a five dollar processing fee. The material is withdrawn from the library's collection according to established procedures. Should the missing item be found within three months, the library desires the return of the item and will refund the patron the exact amount paid by the patron for the lost item, not including the five dollar processing fee. After three months, there are no refunds given for lost materials.

2.4 Claims Returned Overdue Material

Through an established tracking process, the library makes every effort to determine that an item is not in the library before a statement is sent to a patron.

When a patron claims that an item is returned, the library staff will check the shelf for the item. If the item is not found on the shelf, staff will ask the patron to keep looking for the item at home and check the item in using the special status, Claims Returned. The patron will continue to have check-out privileges.

Staff will generate a Claims Returned report biweekly in order to continue checking shelves for the item for at least six weeks after the item was marked Claims Returned. After six months, the bibliographic information for the item claimed will be given to selectors either to be replaced or deleted.

Patrons will be allowed two Claims Returned items at no charge. If a patron has three or more items that they claim have been returned they will be charged the replacement cost and processing fee for those items. Borrowing privileges may be suspended until the item is returned or replacement costs and processing fees have been paid.

3. ALTERNATIVE PAYMENTS

Payments for damaged or lost materials are normally made by cash, check, or credit/debit card. The Library may accept a new copy of the missing or damaged item in lieu of a cash payment. A five dollar processing fee will be added in either case.

4. DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

The Library will comply with state law and municipal ordinances regarding the disposition of surplus library materials. The standard practice is to contribute withdrawn materials to a used book sale, which is open to the general public. As provided in the exclusionary clause of the Park City Municipal Code, the Library Board may delegate to the Library Director the discretion to dispose of discarded materials by donating them to other government agencies and non-profit organizations.

Disabling Provision: Any adult patron (18 years of age or older) may request that the technology protection device (filter) be disabled at any time and for any period of time during which the patron is using the computer. Such request can be made to any library staff. All library staff have the authority to disable technology protection devices (filters).

I will not use the internet for any purpose prohibited by federal, state or local laws or regulations. I will not misrepresent myself by any means and will use only the library card authorized for my use. I will not alter hardware or software, nor make copies of copyrighted or licensed material or data unless such use is authorized.

I understand that the Library uses filtering software to screen out sites which may provide access to visual depictions that are obscene, child pornography, or harmful to minors. I will not send, receive or display visual depictions that are obscene, child pornography, or harmful to minors.

I agree to use appropriate discretion when viewing materials and will refrain from displaying materials on a terminal when so requested by Library staff. The Library's policy details customer standards of conduct and procedures related to the violation of these standards. Customers may request a copy of this policy from Library staff.

I understand that failure to comply with this Agreement may result in the loss of Library privileges, up to and including permanent trespass from all Park City Library facilities. The Library has no control over information obtained through the internet and cannot be held responsible for its content or accuracy.

The Library assumes no responsibility for damages, direct or indirect, for the use of the internet including, but not limited to, damage to the user's computer equipment.

- Will assist young patrons in using the internet to the extent that time will allow.
- Will use filtering software on the Children's, Youth and Teen computers to limit access to certain sites, in an effort to make internet content accessed at the Library match as closely as possible the types of materials selected for the Library's Juvenile Collection. The software that is installed restricts access by all patrons to internet sites that contain potentially obscene material.

3. HANDLING THE INITIAL EMERGENCY

Library Staff will be responsible for identifying and handling the initial onset of an emergency situation. All staff members have the latitude to identify an emergency situation and initiate a first response. In case of situations requiring immediate intervention by police, fire or medical personnel, employees are reminded to first and immediately call 911. All library staff members are required to have read and be familiar with the library's emergency procedures as outlined in the Emergency Procedure Manual.

The Librarian-In-Charge (LIC) or Building Warden, if present, will act as an Emergency Coordinator (EC) in the event of an emergency. The EC will be briefed on the nature of the emergency and assume initial responsibility for coordinating and activating the library's appropriate emergency procedures until emergency response personnel arrive on site. The EC will also inform the Library Director and LIC and library tenants of the nature of the emergency as soon as possible.

In the event of an emergency, it is the primary responsibility of the library staff present to insure the safety of library patrons and the remainder of the staff. HEALTH AND CLEANLINESS POLICY

1. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES OF POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to maintain a healthy and clean environment for all Library users and to protect the City's investment in Library collections, equipment, facilities, and property.

2. DEFINITION OF A HEALTH AND CLEANLINESS SITUATION

A health and cleanliness situation occurs when the health and cleanliness of Library collections, equipment, facilities, property and users are negatively impacted or they are at risk of being negatively impacted.

When a health and cleanliness situation occurs, a patron's borrowing of materials or access to Library facilities may be suspended.

Examples of situations where a patron's borrowing of materials may be suspended include:

- Evidence that items on loan to a patron may have been returned with insects that are known to be damaging to library materials or that can result in pest infestations in library facilities; e.g. roaches, silverfish, lice, rodents, bedbugs, and some types of beetles.
- Evidence that items on loan to a patron may have been contaminated with biofluid.

Examples of situations where a patron's access to Library facilities may be suspended include:

- When a patron or their possessions have a pest infestation.
- When a patron or their possessions, including clothing, are contaminated with biofluid.

3. HANDLING THE INITIAL HEALTH AND CLEANLINESS SITUATION

Library Staff will be responsible for identifying and handling the initial onset of a health and cleanliness situation. All staff members have the expectation to identify a health and cleanliness situation and initiate a first response in coordination with the Librarian-In-Charge (LIC).

In the event of a health and cleanliness situation, it is the primary responsibility of the library staff present to insure the safety of library patrons and the staff. The secondary responsibility of the library staff is to minimize any damaging effects to property. Staff should not incur undue risk or place anyone else's personal safety at risk when fulfilling these responsibilities. Remember: people first, property second.

4. FOLLOW-UP HANDLING OF EMERGENCY

Should it become necessary to suspend Library privileges or access to facilities of a patron in order to protect Library collections, equipment, facilities, or other users, notification of the suspension will be made by the Library Director or their designee. Access to facilities and borrowing will be restored when the suspended patron demonstrates that the situation that caused the loss of privileges has been remediated. The Library may require the patron to provide documentation from an agency approved by the Library Director, such as pest control, in order to document that the situation has been remediated.

In the event that Library collections and/or property are damaged, the patron will be charged under the terms of the Damaged Materials Policy.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN POLICY

The Park City Library adopts the following policy regarding the administration of interlibrary loan service and patron eligibility for such service. This policy is consistent with national, state and inter-state interlibrary loan policies.

1. DEFINITION AND STATEMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

An interlibrary loan is a transaction in which library material, or a copy of the material is made available by one library to another upon request. Interlibrary loan service is essential to the vitality of libraries of all types and sizes as its basic purpose is to obtain for patrons, library material not available at the local level. Lending between libraries is in the public interest and should be encouraged.

Each library entering into an interlibrary loan transaction is acting in good faith that the tenets of national and state codes will be adhered to by all other libraries.

1.1 Park City Library lends materials to other libraries both in-state and out of state.

1.2 Park City Library is a BCR code signer and, as a signatory, adheres to all applicable rules.

2. MATERIALS

2.1 Park City Library lends adult, young adult and juvenile level materials. The collection is primarily of print materials although audio visual materials may also be loaned . Wherever applicable, photocopies of articles or other print materials will be made and supplied to the requesting library.

2.2 At the discretion of the interlibrary loan librarian and reference staff, Park City Library may lend the following types of materials:

2.2.1 New books and best sellers: when there are no local reserves pending and when the item's popularity has diminished

2.2.2 Seasonal/holiday books: may be lent for up to sixty days before the start of the season, e.g., Christmas books will be lent until October 25.

- 2.3 As a general rule, Park City Library does not lend the following:
- 2.3.1 Reference materials: exceptions may be made on an item by item basis. If the decision is made to lend a reference book, it shall be specified, “for in-library use only.”
 - 2.3.2 Park City Collection— those items designated with “PCC” in the call number.
 - 2.3.3 Microfilm: exception may be made for The Park Record newspaper, although the library would prefer to send print-outs from the microfilm rather than the actual reel of film. Users are encouraged to access back issues of the Park Record on-line.
 - 2.3.4 Periodicals: photocopies of designated articles will be supplied.
 - 2.3.5 Oversized books: those books which, because of their size, value or unique subject coverage, are awkward or inappropriate for mailing. Exceptions may be made on an item by item basis. If the decision is made to lend an oversized book, it may be specified for “in-library use only.”
- 2.4 Exceptions to all the above rules may be made by the Library Director.

3. CIRCULATION OF INTERLIBRARY LOANS

- 3.1 Park City Library accepts requests for interlibrary loan materials on line via OCLC, by telephone from another library staff member, and by mail, through use of the official ALA interlibrary loan request form.
- 3.2 Park City Library does not charge for any of its outgoing transactions. The borrowing library, however, must pay for the return postage.
- 3.3 Park City Library lends materials to other libraries both in-state and out of state.
- 3.4 Park City Library’s loan period extends for a total of 45 days, which is intended to allow for mailing time (both ways) and adequate time for patron use.
- 3.5 Renewals are possible providing there are no requests pending at the local level. Items may be renewed for up to thirty days with a maximum of one renewal.

4. PATRON ELIGIBILITY

Any person registered with the Park City Library is eligible to request interlibrary loan service. The patron must be in good standing with the library, that is, not have overdue materials or unpaid fines. Further, the patron must abide by the particular guidelines for Park City Library's interlibrary loan service.

5. FEES

The Library Board may levy charges to help offset the cost of mailing, handling and processing interlibrary loan transactions. Charges are due at the time an Interlibrary loan is picked up at the circulation desk. If not paid, the charge will be added to the patron's fines record. Fees charged by the lending institution for items, which are damaged or lost, while checked out to a patron, will become that patron's responsibility to repay.

Approved by Library Board, January 2007

UNATTENDED CHILDREN

The Park City Library welcomes children of all ages. Library staff strives to provide a safe and appropriate environment for all Library users. Our library is a public building. Any public place may be dangerous for a child who is left unattended even for brief periods of time. In addition, Library facilities are neither designed nor licensed to provide childcare. A child left alone at the Library without a responsible caregiver may become bored, fatigued, or frightened, and this may lead to behavior that disrupts the Library services that staff provides to them and/or others.

Parents and other caregivers are solely responsible for the welfare and the behavior of children using the Library. Children who are unable or unwilling to care for themselves may not be left alone in the Library and must have adequate supervision while in the Library. If an unattended child is found frightened, crying, or otherwise in distress, staff will attempt to locate the child's parent or caregiver. If Library staff cannot find the child's parent or caregiver, law enforcement will be notified and assume care of the child.

If an unattended child is found to be violating the Library's Patron Behavior Policy, that child may be asked to leave. If Library staff is concerned about the child's welfare, law enforcement may be notified to assume care of the child.
